

Singing in the Classroom

A half-day INSET for teachers and leaders of singing in primary schools

A comprehensive CPD session covering the fundamentals of good singing leadership in the classroom, delivered in a friendly and supportive environment. Suitable for teachers and other leaders of singing in primary schools - all abilities and experience welcome.

Session content

- Songs to use in the classroom - warm-ups, rounds, great songs in a booklet to take away
- The essentials of leading singing effectively
- Helping you to get the best from your school singing strategy
- Introduction to further resources, training and support

Offered to Music Education Hubs, music organisations, individual schools or school clusters. Delivered by renowned conductor, teacher trainer, vocal strategy consultant and international workshop leader Ula Weber, with freelance music education specialist, and ex-Programme Director of Sing Up, Baz Chapman.

Timings

Can be delivered to suit the setting, but 1-5pm or 1.30-5.30pm works well.

Cost

£500 inclusive of expenses. VAT not applicable.

Contact

Baz Chapman: baz_musicleader@yahoo.co.uk, 07768 314415

'It was all really useful, great ideas and just being able to take some time and talk and share experiences with colleagues from other schools was really helpful.'

In association with:-

www.bazchapman.org.uk
www.ulaweber.org.uk

